

Thank You

Mr. President,

We cannot thank you enough for your unparalleled friendship. You have saved many lives and you have inspired others. We are eternally grateful. May your unwavering commitment to justice and human rights set a new standard for world leaders.

In standing by us, you have insured that the recipients of God's Torah will continue and enlighten humankind so we all might equally enjoy life, as God intended.

Faced with many difficult decisions, we admire your choices and your integrity. We wish you well, and pray that God blesses you with a long life where you will continue as a beacon for generations to come.

The Jewish People